Teppanyaki

Art. 697030

The flexible teppanyaki griddle solution from JOKODOMUS. It preserves all functionality: thermostat control on one temperature zone, and can be placed directly on your dining table to live cooking emotion while chatting with friends and enjoying food. The stainless steel griddle surface enables punctual temperature transmission, in steaming or frying technique. Of course all this will be done without additional fat and unhealthy burning on. A smart technology; and finally also the cleansing is easy to do.
